

Instructions

(Please note: Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic, financial documents can be submitted electronically with signatures attached as a PDF or image file. Please use the email address for your campus in the footer below to send your documents.)

For International Students: Before Certificates of Eligibility (Form I-20 for an F-1 visa and DS-2019 for a J-1 visa) can be issued, international students must document financial resources adequate to meet the full costs of educational and living expenses for themselves and, if applicable, dependents.

The following documentation is required:

- 1. Affidavit of Support. Financial documentation is not usually required until admission is offered. Because many programs offer international students funding and documents must be current, no older than 9 months prior to the term of admission, it is recommended that you wait until admission is offered to submit them.

Exception: The Rutgers Business School-Newark and New Brunswick requires financial documentation before admissions is offered. Submit financial documentation with your application credentials.

- 2. Statement of Account. Original, scanned PDF or image file, current-dated (no more than 9 months prior to start date), from a bank or other financial institution. Balances must be reported on official bank letterhead or business forms. It must be in English or accompanied by certified English translation. Account holders other than the applicant must be identified, and the relationship indicated on the Certification of Funds (or Affidavit of Support).

Students awarded assistantships and fellowships by Rutgers generally satisfy their financial certification requirements for admission.

For the first full year of study, available funds on account must be certified in the minimum estimated amounts specified below for the first year of admission (estimated amounts may vary and are subject to increase).
